

Situation Analysis of Children and Women in Iraq – 1997

Contents

|  | Page |
|--|------|
| Introduction   | 1    |
| Part 1 – Iraq national context   | 4    |
| 1.1 Physical environment  |      |
| 1.2 Political environment   |      |
| 1.3 Socio-economic development  |      |
| 1.4 Demographic trends  |      |
| 1.5 Oil for food  |      |
| 1.6 CRC and National Plan of Action   |      |
| 1.7 Gender equity   |      |
| Part 2a – Child survival, rights and basic needs                                       | 23   |
| 2.1 Food availability and access  |      |
| 2.2 Food as sustenance  |      |
| 2.3 Water and sanitation  |      |
| 2.4 Health services   |      |
| Part 2b – Child survival, rights and basic needs (contd.)                              | 42   |
| 2.5 Assessments of health and nutrition   |      |
| Part 3 – Development and protection rights: circumscribed implementation               | 76   |
| 3.1 National support of development &amp; protection rights                     |      |
| 3.2 National plan of action   |      |
| 3.3 Support of development and protection rights                                |      |
| 3.4 Child rights in the context of economic austerity                           |      |
| 3.5 Hidden vulnerabilities of war and sanctions                                 |      |
| Part 4 – Implementation of child rights and national plan of action for Iraqi children | 95   |
| 4.1 Priority problems to address  |      |
| 4.2 Partnership for children  |      |